Nesser, Sarus;—Gentleman—I counder it but an act of justice to you to state the following facts in reference to the great beneat I have reverred in the cure of an obtainiste Cascanous Unexs on my breast.

I was attended signiferon months by a recular and shifted physician, assisted by the advice and counsel of one of our most anne and experienced surgeons, without the least benefit whatever. All the rations methods of treating cancer were restored to; for five weeks in succession by forcast was hurned with exostic three times a-day, and for six it was daily syringed with a weak notions of nitric scal, and the cavity or internal after. As so large that it field over an onner of the solution. The doctor probed line u. r and examined the bone, and said the disease was advancing rapidly to the langs, and if I def nut get speedy refief by moderne or an operation, the result would be lated. I was advised to have the breast jed open and the bones examined but finding no refief from what had been done, and feeling i was rapidly getting worse, I almost despated of recovery, and considered my case nearly hopeless.

LIVER COMPLAINT.
The following is an extract from a letter received from Rev. William Galusha:-Mesars Saxus:—I have been afficied with a severe pain in my safe, occasioned by a diseased layer, for the last twenty years; suffering at times what language can be suffered with a severe pain in my safe, occasioned by a diseased layer, for the last twenty years; suffering at times what language can be for convey; but since taking your Sarsanarilla I have been greatly relieved, so much so that I have been able to attem to my business, and preach occasionally, for the saft them months. I wholly described all other needlene, and thoroughly tried the Sarsanarilla, which I can recommend in truth and succerty to all those who are in any way affined with sury section of sections complaints. There have been some remarkante cures effected by its use in the vicinity. Alsa, I. Shaw, by the use of xix bottles, was trestored to believe health than also had before emoved for ten years; and Mrs. W. Stevens, who had been severely affinited with Erysipelas, was entirely cured by the use of a few buttles.

Yours truly, WM. GALUSHA.

CURE OF A ECROFULOUS AFFECTION OF THE EYES.

Messas, Sawas: - Gentletner- My little daughter, when one year old, was attacked with a scrotulous humor on her twee, which sawn after extended into her eyes, causing almost total blindness in one of them, and dasigning her whole face. I employed two physionams to altend her, who exhausted their utmost skill to give her relief, but all proved usedees, and finely one of them remarked to me that he had known of some straining cures effected by Sawas' Sarasparilla, and advised me to try it. I obtained one battle, which she commenced using, and before it was all used up it had cheeted an entire cure. It is now over four years since she was cured, and there has been no temperature of the disease, and we are satisfied that it is a perfect cure. It gives me great pleasure to add that I can recommend at to every sufferer from a similar composint.

THE INDEPENDENT. Col. Benton.

The late onslaught of the Missouri Sen-ator upon the South has not secured him a very warm reception from the Whig press. If there could be any thing more inconsistent than Benton's attempting to catch Whigs in his net, it would be in Whigs permitting themselves to be gulled by the Senator from Missouri. If there is a man on this whole continent who deserves to stand as a target between the two great parties of the land, and be thoroughly dled by the balls of each, it is Thomas H. H. Benton. Verily we rejoice in his tribu-

we have never yet seen the moment when we could echo the softened accents of some of our Whiz contemporaries, as of some of our Whiz contemporaries, adopted Mr. Benton, for his own purposes, adopted the right in the questions of Texas, Oregon, &c. We could never yet school our lips to speak pettingly of "Old Bullion." We abominate both the man and the politician. If he is about leaving, or about being kicked out of the great democratic camp, and exclaims in his confusion, "Where am I to go,"-as a Whig we answer him, "Any where but here, Sir. Any where but here." At one moment the bitter assailant of John Quincy Adams; at another, the inheritor of his free-soil fanaticism; at one moment the devoted friend of Henry Clay, at another his most malignant enemy; at one mo-ment, with his dagger at Andrew Jackson's breast, and at another holding Old Hickory by the coat tail, and emulating the little Magician in the zeal with which he trotted on the old warrior's track,—he is a pretty person to lecture Calhoun or any body else upon inconsistency. The weathercock might as well reproach the moon, and the wind rebuke the tides, for fickleness and change. change. Whether as East Room Benton, anti-bank Benton, anti-Clay Benton, "Old Bullica Benton," Licut. Gen. Benton, or Free Soil Benton! avaunt, we want none of thee .-The self-conceit, the arrogance, the tyran-ny, the revenge, which have made this man the fear of his party in the Senate Chamber, have no terror for Whigs. They despise alike his smiles and his frowns.— They are glad to see his allegiance re-nounced by many of his ancient friends, and devently hope that in his late Wilmot Provise dive, he will meet the fate of the unfortunate Dutchman, who stuck his head so deeply in the mud at the bottom of the river, that he never saw daylight more. The Globe newspaper keeps up its caw, caw, about the U.S. Bank. The Whigs went for the monster under Jackson, we are told, under Tyler too, and will go for it again whenever they get a full sweep in power. The 'Globe' knows so much bet-ter what we Whigs will do than we ourselves know, that it of course is right, and we Whigs all wrong.

The United States Bank was well enough in its day,—so thought George Washington, so thought James Madison, so thought all the Republican Fathers, and even General Jackson himself, who volunteered to offer Congress one of his own shaping, but did not like the one Congress licked into shape. But the United States Bank is now an obsolete idea—and why?

When the United Stales Bank was contended for, New Orleans and New York were from twenty to thirty days apart; now, by the telegraph, they are but a few Fathers deemed a National Bank necessary, there were few or no railroads, not many eamboats, and none upon the ocean; and the great marts of commerce were so sep-arate that the dollar, which was 100 cents in one place, might be only 90 cents in another. To equalize the currency, a National Bank was necessary to regulate the exchanges; that is, a money power which could afford to create a dollar which would be a dollar in St. Louis, in Eastport, would be a donar in St. Louis, in Eastport, in New Orleans, in New York, in short ev-erywhere in the Union.

Now, however, if the domestic exchan-ges in New York are in favor of St. Louis, or New Orleans, or against, the broker or banker in Wall street goes to the telegraph of Carriage making and repairing, which will be executed in the best style, and all new work arranted twelve months. We also have and shall continue to keep on thee, creates so much credit here, or there, to be drawn upon, or drawn against, and thus in a day, and in an instant, through rn aml of our own make, which we will sell competition, the exchanges are regulated, instead of awaiting, as in older times, the  Persons who want anything in our line answer of a letter, the time consumed in answer of a letter, the time consumed in which would be, perhaps, sixty days.

The Globe thus can see,—the Globe can see nothing!—but the old opposers of a National Bank can now see why the whigs, SHOES.—Mon's and boy's cal and kip; Men's velvet slippers; Children's Leather, Cloth, Kid and Morocco. Ladies kid Slippers, Buskins Gait-ers, half Gaiters, Calf-Skin, &c. without changing, wish now for no Nation al Bank. Whigs once were in favor of the great National McAdamized road from Cumberland, trending through Ohio to the Mississippi; but when railroads came in fashion, they gave up that idea long ago:

destruction. Abolish the telegraph, destroy the railroads, annihilate the creature of Fulton, and all of us again will be for a National Bank—but not until then.

But what is the use of talking with the Global. It will one can be at 18 his
